CASE UPDATES

SITUATION IN UGANDA

The situation was referred to the ICC by the Ugandan government in December 2003. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in July 2004.

THE PROSECUTOR V. JOSEPH KONY AND VINCENT OTTI (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

As top members of the Lord's Resistance Army (LRA), Joseph Kony and Vincent Otti are suspected of crimes against humanity and war crimes allegedly committed in Uganda since July 2002. The suspects are not in ICC custody. The case also involved Raska Lukwiya and Okot Odhiambo but proceedings against them were terminated due to their passing.

5 warrants of arrest (2 withdrawn)
1 accused in custody
2 suspects at large
2 cases

THE PROSECUTOR V. DOMINIC ONGWEN (TRIAL STAGE)

Dominic Ongwen, as the alleged Brigade Commander of the Sinia Brigade of the LRA, is accused of war crimes (attack against the civilian population; murder and attempted murder; rape; sexual slavery; torture; cruel treatment; outrages upon personal dignity; destruction of property; pillaging; the conscription and use of children under the age of 15 to participate actively in hostilities) and crimes against humanity (murder and attempted murder; torture; sexual slavery; rape; enslavement; forced marriage as an inhumane act; persecution; and other inhumane acts) allegedly committed during attacks against the Pajule IDP (October 2003), Odek IDP (April 2004) Lukodi IDP (May 2004) and Abok IDP camps (June 2004) in northern Uganda. His trial opened on 6 December 2016 and is ongoing. Mr Ongwen is in the Court's custody.

SITUATION IN THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO (DRC)

The situation was referred to the Court by the DRC government in April 2004. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in June 2004.

THE PROSECUTOR V. THOMAS LUBANGA DYILO (REPARATIONS STAGE)

Thomas Lubanga Dyilo, founder of the Union des patriotes congolais [Union of Congolese Patriots] (UPC) and the Force patriotiques pour la libération du Congo [Patriotic Force for the Liberation of Congo] (FPLC), former Commander-in-Chief of the FPLC and President of the UPC, was found guilty on 14 March 2012 by Trial Chamber I, as co-perpetrator, of committing the war crimes of the enlistment and conscription of children under the age of 15 into the FPLC and using them to participate actively in hostilities between September 2002 and August 2003. On 10 July 2012, he was sentenced to 14 years of imprisonment. The time spent in ICC custody was deducted. On 1 December 2014, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the verdict and sentence. On 7 August 2012, Trial Chamber I issued a decision on the principles and the process for reparations to victims. On 3 March 2015, the Appeals Chamber amended the Trial Chamber's order for reparations and instructed the Trust Fund for Victims (TFV) to present a draft implementation plan for collective reparations to a newly constituted Chamber. The TFV presented the plan on 3 November 2015. On 9 February 2016, Trial Chamber II ordered the TFV to add information to the plan. On 21 October 2016, Trial Chamber II approved and ordered to start the implementation of a TFV plan for symbolic collective reparations. On 15 December 2017, Trial Chamber II set the amount of Mr Lubanga's liability for collective reparations at USD 10,000,000. The Chamber will decide in due course on the next steps in the implementation of collective reparations. On 19 December 2015, Mr Lubanga was transferred to a prison facility in the DRC to serve his sentence of imprisonment.

7 warrants of arrest
1 accused in custody
1 suspect at large
6 cases

THE PROSECUTOR V. GERMAIN KATANGA (REPARATIONS STAGE)

On 7 March 2014, Trial Chamber II found Germain Katanga guilty as an accessory of one count of crime against humanity (murder) and four counts of war crimes (murder, attacking a civilian population, destruction of property and pillaging) committed on 24 February 2003 during an attack on the village of Bogoro, in Ituri (DRC). Mr Katanga was acquitted of the other charges he faced. On 23 May 2014, Trial Chamber II sentenced Mr Katanga to a total of 12 years' imprisonment. The time spent in ICC detention was deducted. On 25 June 2014, the Defence and the Office of the Prosecutor discontinued their appeals against the judgment. On 13 November 2015, three Judges of the Appeals Chamber reviewed Mr Katanga's sentence and reduced it. On 19 December 2015, Mr Katanga was transferred to a DRC prison to serve his sentence, which he completed on 18 January 2016. Mr Katanga remains in a DRC prison due to national proceedings relating to other alleged crimes. On 24 March 2017, Trial Chamber II awarded individual and collective reparations to the victims. Because of Mr Katanga's indigence, the TFV was invited to consider using its resources for the reparations and to present an implementation plan. On 8 March 2018, the Appeals Chamber confirmed, for the most part, the Reparations Order.

THE PROSECUTOR V. MATHIEU NGUDJOLO CHUI (ACQUITTAL FINAL)

Mathieu Ngudjolo Chui, alleged former leader of the Front des nationalistes et intégrationnistes [National Integrationist Front] (FNI), was acquitted, on 18 December 2012, of three counts of crimes against humanity (murder, rape and sexual slavery) and seven counts of war crimes (using children under the age of 15 to take active part in the hostilities; directing an attack against a civilian population as such or against individual civilians not taking direct part in hostilities; wilful killing; destruction of property; pillaging; sexual slavery and rape) allegedly committed on 24 February 2003 during an attack on the village of Bogoro, in Ituri (DRC). On 21 December 2012, he was released from custody. On 27 February 2015, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the acquittal.

THE PROSECUTOR V. BOSCO NTAGANDA (TRIAL STAGE)

Bosco Ntaganda, former alleged Deputy Chief of the General Staff of the Force Patriotiques pour la Libération du Congo [Patriotic Force for the Liberation of Congo] (FPLC), is accused of 13 counts of war crimes (murder and attempted murder; attacking civilians; rape; sexual slavery of civilians; pillaging; displacement of civilians; attacking protected objects; destroying the enemy's property; and rape, sexual slavery, enlistment and conscription of child soldiers under the age of fifteen years and using them to participate actively in hostilities) and five crimes against humanity (murder and attempted murder; rape; sexual slavery; persecution; forcible transfer of population) allegedly committed in Ituri (DRC). The trial in this case opened on 2 September 2015 and is ongoing. Mr Ntaganda is in the Court's custody.

THE PROSECUTOR V. CALLIXTE MBARUSHIMANA (CHARGES DECLINED)

Callixte Mbarushimana, alleged Executive Secretary of the Forces Démocratiques pour la Libération du Rwanda - Forces Combattantes Abacunguzi (FDLR-FCA), was charged with five counts of crimes against humanity and six counts of war crimes allegedly committed in the Kivus in 2009. On 16 December 2011, Pre-Trial Chamber I declined to confirm the charges against Mr Mbarushimana. On 23 December 2011, he was released from custody. On 30 May 2012, the Appeals Chamber rejected the Prosecutor's appeal against this decision.

THE PROSECUTOR V. SYLVESTRE MUDACUMURA (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Sylvestre Mudacumura, alleged Supreme Commander of the Forces Démocratiques pour la Libération du Rwanda - Forces Combattantes Abacunguzi (FDLR-FCA), is charged with nine counts of war crimes (attacking civilians, murder, mutilation, cruel treatment, rape, torture, destruction of property, pillaging and outrages against personal dignity) allegedly committed from 20 January 2009 to the end of September 2010 in the Kivus. The suspect is not in the Court's custody.

SITUATION IN DARFUR, SUDAN

The situation was referred to the Court by the United Nations Security Council in its resolution 1593 of 31 March 2005. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in June 2005.

6 warrants of arrest delivered
3 summonses to appear issued
0 suspects in custody
5 suspects at large
5 cases

THE PROSECUTOR V. AHMAD MUHAMMAD HARUN ("AHMAD HARUN") AND ALI MUHAMMAD ALI ABD-AL-RAHMAN ("ALI KUSHAYB") (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Former Minister of State for the Interior Ahmad Harun and alleged leader of Janjaweed militia Ali Kushayb are charged with 20 counts of crimes against humanity (including, inter alia, murder, forcible transfer of population, imprisonment or severe deprivation of liberty and torture) and 22 counts of war crimes (including, inter alia, murder, attacks against the civilian population, outrage upon personal dignity, destruction of property and pillaging) allegedly committed in Darfur, Sudan, in 2003 and 2004. The suspects are not in the Court's custody.

THE PROSECUTOR V. OMAR HASSAN AHMAD AL BASHIR (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Sudanese President Omar Al Bashir is charged with five counts of crimes against humanity (murder, extermination, forcible transfer, torture and rape), two counts of war crimes (intentionally directing attacks against a civilian population as such or against individual civilians not taking part in hostilities, and pillaging), and three counts of genocide allegedly committed against the Fur, Masalit and Zaghawa ethnic groups in Darfur, Sudan, from 2003 to 2008. The suspect is not in the Court's custody.

THE PROSECUTOR V. BAHAR IDRIS ABU GARDA (CHARGES DECLINED)

Bahar Idriss Abu Garda, chairman and general coordinator of military operations of the United Resistance Front, was charged with three counts of war crimes (violence to life, intentionally directing attacks against personnel, installations, material, units and vehicles involved in a peacekeeping mission, and pillaging) allegedly committed in an attack against the African Union (AU) Peacekeeping Mission in Sudan on 29 September 2007. He appeared voluntarily before the Court and the confirmation of charges took place on 19-29 October 2009. On 8 February 2010, Pre-Trial Chamber I declined to confirm the charges due to insufficient evidence.

THE PROSECUTOR V. ABDALLAH BANDA ABAKAER NOURAIN (TRIAL STAGE)

Abdallah Banda faces three charges of war crimes (violence to life in the form of murder, whether committed or attempted; intentionally directing attacks against personnel, installations, material, units or vehicles involved in a peacekeeping mission; and pillaging) allegedly committed in an attack carried out on 29 September 2007 against the AU Peacekeeping Mission in Sudan at the Haskanita Military Group Site in North Darfur, Sudan. The case initially involved Saleh Mohammed Jerbo Jamus but proceedings against him were terminated on 4 October 2013 due to his passing. On 11 September 2014, Trial Chamber IV issued an arrest warrant against Abdallah Banda. The Chamber also vacated the trial date and directed the Registry to transmit the requests for arrest and surrender to any State on whose territory Mr Banda may be found. On 3 March 2015, Mr Banda's appeal against the decision replacing the summons by an arrest warrant was rejected.

THE PROSECUTOR V. ABDEL RAHEEM MUHAMMAD HUSSEIN (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Abdel Raheem Muhammad Hussein, current Minister of Sudan National Defence and former Minister of the Interior and former Sudanese President's Special Representative in Darfur, is charged with seven counts of crimes against humanity (persecution, murder, forcible transfer, rape, inhumane acts, imprisonment or severe deprivation of liberty and torture) and six counts of war crimes (murder, attacks against civilian population, destruction of property, rape, pillaging and outrage upon personal dignity) allegedly committed in Darfur, Sudan, from 2002 on. The suspect is not in the Court's custody.

SITUATION IN THE CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC (CAR)

The situation was referred to the Court by the CAR government in December 2004. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in May 2007.

THE PROSECUTOR V. JEAN-PIERRE BEMBA GOMBO (APPEALS STAGE)

On 8 June 2018, the Appeals Chamber of the International Criminal Court decided, by majority, to acquit Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo, alleged President and Commander-in-chief of the Mouvement de libération du Congo [Movement for the Liberation of Congo] (MLC), from the charges of war crimes and crimes against humanity allegedly committed in CAR from on or about 26 October 2002 to 15 March 2003. The Appeals Chamber indicated that there was no reason to continue Mr Bemba's detention on the basis of the case related to alleged crimes in the Central African Republic.

THE PROSECUTOR V. JEAN-PIERRE BEMBA GOMBO, AIMÉ KILOLO MUSAMBA, JEAN-JACQUES MANGENDA KABONGO, FIDÈLE BABALA WANDU AND NARCISSE ARIDO (APPEALS STAGE)

On 19 October 2016, Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo, Aimé Kilolo Musamba, Jean-Jacques Mangenda Kabongo, Fidèle Babala Wandu and Narcisse Arido were found guilty of offences against the administration of justice related to intentionally corruptly influencing witnesses and soliciting false testimonies of defence witnesses in the other case against Mr Bemba at the ICC. On 22 March 2017, Trial Chamber VII delivered the sentences in the case. On 8 March 2018, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the convictions in respect of most of the charges. However, it acquitted Mr Bemba, Mr Kilolo and Mr Mangenda of the charge of presenting evidence that a party knows is false or forged. The convictions and acquittals in relation to the five accused are now final. Regarding the sentences, the Appeals Chamber rejected the appeals of Mr Bemba, Mr Babala and Mr Arido; the sentences imposed on Mr Babala and Mr Arido are now final. But the Appeals Chamber granted the Prosecutor's appeal, reversed the sentences of Mr Bemba, Mr Mangenda and Mr Kilolo and remanded the matter to the Trial Chamber for a new determination, which was made on 17 September 2018. On 12 June 2018, Trial Chamber VII ordered interim release under specific conditions for Mr Bemba, as it found that, taking into account all relevant factors and the circumstances of the case as a whole, the legal requirements for continued detention were not met.

SITUATION IN THE CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC II

On 30 May 2014, the ICC Prosecutor received a referral from the Central African authorities regarding crimes allegedly committed on CAR territory since 1 August 2012. On 24 September 2014, following an independent and comprehensive preliminary examination, the Office of the Prosecutor announced the opening of open a second investigation in the Central African Republic with respect to crimes allegedly committed since 2012.

SITUATION IN KENYA

On 31 March 2010, Pre-Trial Chamber II authorised the Prosecutor to open an investigation proprio motu in the situation in the Republic of Kenya, in relation to the 2007-2008 post-election violence in that country. Kenya has been an ICC State Party since 15 March 2005.

THE PROSECUTOR V. WILLIAM SAMOEI RUTO AND JOSHUA ARAP SANG (CASE TERMINATED)

William Samoei Ruto and Joshua Arap Sang faced three counts of crimes against humanity (murder, deportation or forcible transfer of population and persecution) allegedly committed in the context of the 2007-2008 post-election violence in Kenya. Their trial started on 10 September 2013. On 5 April 2016, Trial Chamber V(A) terminated the case against William Samoei Ruto and Joshua Arap Sang, on the basis of the evidence and arguments submitted to the Chamber.

THE PROSECUTOR V. UHURU MUIGAI KENYATTA (CHARGES WITHDRAWN)

Uhuru Kenyatta faced five counts of crimes against humanity (murder, deportation or forcible transfer of population, rape, persecution and other inhumane acts) allegedly committed in the context of the 2007-2008 post-election violence in Kenya. On 5 December 2014, the Prosecutor filed a notice to withdraw charges against Mr Kenyatta. On 13 March 2015, Trial Chamber V(B) terminated the proceedings in the case and vacated the summons to appear against Mr Kenyatta.

THE PROSECUTOR V. SAIF AL-ISLAM GADDAFI (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Saif Al-Islam Gaddafi is charged with two counts of crimes against humanity (murder and persecution) allegedly committed across Libya from 15 until at least 28 February 2011. On 31 May 2013, Pre-Trial Chamber I rejected Libya's challenge to the admissibility of the case against Mr Gaddafi and reminded Libya of its obligation to surrender the suspect to the ICC. On 21 May 2014, the Appeals Chamber confirmed this decision. The suspect is not in the Court's custody. While an arrest warrant was also issued against Abdullah Al-Senussi, on 11 October 2013, Pre-Trial Chamber I decided that the case against Mr Al-Senussi was inadmissible before the ICC as it was subject to domestic proceedings by the competent Libyan authorities and that Libya was willing and able to carry out genuinely such investigation. On 24 July 2014, the Appeals Chamber confirmed this decision. ICC proceedings against Mr Al-Senussi came to an end. An arrest warrant was also issued for Muammar Mohammed Abu Minyar Gaddafi but his case was terminated on 22 November 2011, due to his passing.

THE PROSECUTOR V. AL-TUHAMY MOHAMED KHALED (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Al-Tuhamy Mohamed Khaled is charged with four crimes against humanity (imprisonment, torture, persecution, and other inhumane acts) allegedly committed in Libya from 15 February 2011 until 24 August 2011, and with three war crimes (torture, cruel treatment and outrages upon personal dignity) allegedly committed in Libya from at least early March 2011 to 24 August 2011. He is not in the Court's custody.

THE PROSECUTOR V MAHMOUD MUSTAFA BUSYF AL-WERFALLI (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)
