L.N. 65 of 1984,
L.N.275 of 1990,
A7 of 2007.

1. This Act may be cited as the Judicature Act.

Short title.

2. In this Act, “judge” means the Chief Justice or a puisne judge appointed under section 61 of the Constitution or a judge of appeal appointed under section 64 of the Constitution and includes acting appointments.

Interpretation.
14 of 1977, Sch.

3. (1) The jurisdiction of the High Court, the Court of Appeal and of all subordinate courts shall be exercised in conformity with -

Mode of exercise of jurisdiction.
14 of 1977, Sch.

(a) the Constitution;

(b) subject thereto, all other written laws, including the Acts of Parliament of the United Kingdom cited in Part I of the Schedule to this Act, modified in accordance with Part II of that Schedule;

(c) subject thereto and so far as those written laws do not extend or apply, the substance of the common law, the doctrines of equity and the statutes of general application in force in England on the 12th August, 1897, and the procedure and practice observed in courts of justice in England at that date;

but the common law, doctrines of equity and statutes of general application shall apply so far only as the circumstances of Kenya and its inhabitants permit and subject to such qualifications as those circumstances may render necessary.

(2) The High Court, the Court of Appeal and all subordinate courts shall be guided by African customary law in civil cases in which one or more of the parties is subject to it or affected by it, so far as it is applicable and is not repugnant to justice and morality or inconsistent with any written law, and shall decide all such cases according to substantial justice without undue regard to technicalities of procedure and without undue delay.

High Court is court of admiralty.

4. (1) The High Court shall be a court of admiralty, and shall exercise admiralty jurisdiction in all matters arising on the high seas, or in territorial waters, or upon any lake or other navigable inland waters in Kenya.

(2) The admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court shall be exercisable -

(a) over and in respect of the same persons, things and matters, and

(b) in the same manner and to the same extent, and

(c) in accordance with the same procedure,

as in the High Court in England, and shall be exercised in conformity with international laws and the comity of nations.

(3) In the exercise of its admiralty jurisdiction, the High Court may exercise all the powers which it possesses for the purpose of its other civil jurisdiction.

(4) An appeal shall lie from any judgment, order or decision of the High Court in the exercise of its admiralty jurisdiction within the same time and in the same manner as an appeal from a decree of the High Court under Part VII of the Civil Procedure Act.

Cap. 21.

Contempt of court.
14 of 1977, Sch.

5. (1) The High Court and the Court of Appeal shall have the same power to punish for contempt of court as is for the time being possessed by the High Court of Justice in England, and that power shall extend to upholding the authority and dignity of subordinate courts.

(2) An order of the High Court made by way of punishment for contempt of court shall be appealable as if it were a conviction and sentence made in the exercise of the ordinary original criminal jurisdiction of the High Court.

Protection of judges and officers.
10 of 1983, Sch.

6. No judge or magistrate, and no other person acting judicially, shall be liable to be sued in a civil court for an act done or ordered by him in the discharge of his judicial duty, whether or not within the limits of his jurisdiction, provided he, at the time, in good faith believed himself to have jurisdiction to do or order the act complained of; and no officer of a court or other person bound to execute the lawful warrants, orders or other process of a judge or such person shall be liable to be sued in any court for the execution of a warrant, order or process which he would have been bound to execute if within the jurisdiction of the person issuing it.

7. (1) For the purposes of section 60(2) of the Constitution, the number of puisne judges of the High Court shall not exceed seventy.

Number of puisne judges and judges of appeal.

14 of 1977, Sch.,
6 of 1979, Sch.,
12 of 1981, Sch.,
19 of 1982, Sch.,
19 of 1984, Sch.,
10 of 1997, Sch.
7 of 2007

(2) For the purposes of section 64 (2) of the Constitution, the number of judges of appeal shall not exceed fourteen.

8. (1) The puisne judges shall rank among themselves according to the priority of their respective appointments as puisne judges:

Precedence of puisne judges and of judges of appeal.

14 of 1977, Sch.

Provided that -

- (i) persons appointed to act as puisne judges who were previously puisne judges shall rank according to the date of their original appointment as puisne judges;
- (ii) the President, if he is of the opinion that there are sufficient reasons for so doing, may determine the precedence of puisne judges irrespective of the priority of their respective appointments.

(2) The judges of appeal shall rank among themselves according to the priority of their respective appointments as judges of appeal:

Provided that -

- (i) persons appointed to act as judges of appeal who were previously judges of appeal shall rank according to the date of their original appointment as judges of appeal;
- (ii) the President, if he is of the opinion that there are sufficient reasons for so doing, may determine the precedence of judges of appeal irrespective of the priority of their respective appointments.

9. For the purposes of section 62 (1) of the Constitution, the age at which a person holding the office of judge shall vacate his office shall be seventy-four years.

Retiring age.

14 of 1977, Sch.,
L.N. 162/1980.

Rules.
4 of 1975, s. 2.

10. The Chief Justice may make rules of court for regulating the practice and procedure of the High Court and, subject to any other written law, that of subordinate courts, and the power to make rules under this section shall include the power to prescribe fees and scales of remuneration.

R.E. 1948, Vol. V.

LETTERS OF REQUEST TO A FOREIGN TRIBUNAL TO EXAMINE WITNESSES ABROAD

The following shall be the form of a letter of request to a foreign tribunal to examine witnesses abroad: -

Whereas an action is now pending in the High Court of Kenya at, in which is plaintiff and is defendant. And in the said action the plaintiff claims [insert endorsement on writ].

And whereas it has been represented to the said court that it is necessary, for the purposes of justice and for the due determination of the matters in dispute between the parties, that the following persons should be examined as witnesses upon oath touching such matters, that is to say, E.F., of, G.H., of, and I.J., of

And it appearing that such witnesses are resident within the jurisdiction of your honourable court.

Now I,, as the Judge of the High Court of Kenya, have the honour to request, and do hereby request, that, for the reasons aforesaid and for the assistance of the High Court of Kenya, you as the President and Judges of the said, or some one or more of you, will be pleased to summon the said witnesses (and such other witnesses as the agents of the said plaintiff and defendant shall humbly request you in writing so to summon) to attend at such time and place as you shall appoint before some one or more of you, or such other person as according to the procedure of your court is competent to take the examination of witnesses, and that you will cause such witnesses to be examined upon the interrogatories which accompany this letter of request (or viva voce) touching the said matters in question in the presence of the agents of the plaintiff and defendant, or such of them as shall, on due notice given, attend such examination.

And I certify that such service so proved, and the proof thereof, pleased to cause the answers of the said witnesses to be reduced into writing, and all books, letters, papers and documents produced upon such examination to be duly marked for identification, and that you will be further pleased to authenticate such examination by the seal of your Tribunal, or in such other way as is in accordance with your procedure, and to return the same, together with such request in writing, if any, for the examination of other witnesses, through the Minister, for transmission to the High Court.

PART VII - EVIDENCE FOR FOREIGN TRIBUNALS

R.E. 1948,
Vol. V.
L.N. 87/1964.Application to court.
19 and 20 Vict., c.
113.

1. Where, under the Foreign Tribunals Evidence Act 1856, a civil or commercial matter or a criminal matter, is pending before a court or tribunal of a foreign country and it is made to appear to the court or a judge, by commission rogatoire, or letter of request, or other evidence as hereinafter provided, that that court or tribunal is desirous of obtaining the testimony in relation to the matter of any witness or witnesses within the jurisdiction, the court or a judge may, on the ex parte application of any person shown to be duly authorized to make the application on behalf of the foreign court or tribunal, and on production of the commission rogatoire, or letter of request, or of a certificate signed in the manner and certifying to the effect mentioned in section 2 of the Foreign Tribunals Evidence Act 1856, or such other evidence as the court or a judge may require, make such order or orders as may be necessary to give effect to the intention of the Acts above mentioned in conformity with section 1 of the Foreign Tribunals Evidence Act 1856.

2. An order made under rule 1 shall be in the form in Schedule I with such variations as circumstances may require.

Form of order.

3. The examination may be ordered to be taken before any fit and proper person nominated by the person applying, or other qualified person as the court or judge may think fit; and a person appointed by the court or a judge shall be entitled to charge the fees and charges mentioned in Schedule III and shall endorse on the depositions when he transmits them to the Registrar of the High Court a statement of the hours within which the examination began and ended.

Examination.

4. Unless otherwise provided in the order for examination, the examiner before whom the examination is taken shall, on its completion, forward it to the Registrar of the High Court, and on receipt thereof the Registrar shall append thereto a certificate, in the form in Schedule II, with such variations as circumstances may require, duly sealed with the seal of the High Court for use out of the jurisdiction, and shall forward the depositions so certified, and the commission rogatoire or letter of request, if any, to the Minister, for transmission to the foreign court or tribunal requiring it.

Forwarding of examination.

5. An order made under rule 1 may direct the examination to be taken as requested by the commission rogatoire or letter of request from the Foreign Court, or therein signified to be in accordance with the practice or requirements of such a court or tribunal, or as requested

Method of examination.

[Subsidiary]

by the applicant for the order; but in the absence of any such special directions in the order for examination it shall be taken in the manner prescribed by rule 6.

Procedure. Cap. 21.

6. (1) The provisions of the Civil Procedure Act and of the rules of court for the time being in force relating to the summoning, attendance and examination of witnesses and to the remuneration of and penalties to be imposed upon witnesses shall apply to persons required to give evidence or to produce documents under this Part, and for the purposes of this rule an examiner appointed under this Part shall be deemed to be a civil court.

(2) An examiner appointed under this Part may apply to a court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction a witness resides for the issue of process which he may find it necessary to issue to or against that witness, and the court may issue any process it considers reasonable and proper.

Application of rules to British Tribunals.
22 Vict., c. 20.

7. This Part applies, so far as may be, to applications under the Evidence by Commission Act 1859 for the purpose of giving effect to a commission or letter of request from a Commonwealth Tribunal out of the jurisdiction, but in those cases the duly certified depositions and letter of request, if any, shall be returned to the authority which forwarded the commission or letter of request, unless they are returned under the provisions of rule 9.

Application to court by Attorney-General.

8. Where a commission rogatoire or letter of request mentioned in rule 9 is transmitted to the High Court by the Minister with an intimation that it is desirable that effect should be given to it without requiring an application to be made to the court by the agents in Kenya of any of the parties to the action or matter in the foreign country, the Registrar of the High Court shall transmit it to the Attorney-General, who may thereupon make such applications and take such steps as may be necessary to give effect to the commission rogatoire or letter of request in accordance with rules 1 to 6.

Return of commission direct to Court or Foreign Tribunal.

9. Where a commission rogatoire or letter of request has been received from a Foreign Court or Tribunal direct, without having been transmitted through the Minister, then, notwithstanding anything contained in rule 4, the Registrar may, after the commission rogatoire or letter of request has been complied with, if in his opinion the course would tend to avoid undue inconvenience and delay, return the depositions duly certified direct to the Court or Foreign Tribunal from which the commission rogatoire or letter of request emanated.

PART VIII - ATTACHMENT AND SALE OF PROPERTY

[Revoked by L.N. 69/1981]

PART IX - COURT FEES

L.N. 122/1975,
L.N. 69/1982.

1. The fees specified in the Schedule to this Part shall be leviable by the High Court and courts subordinate thereto in respect of the matters and proceedings mentioned therein, and no portion of any fee which has been properly levied in accordance with the Schedule to this Part upon the filing of a suit or other proceeding shall be refunded because a lesser amount was adjudged to be payable than was assessed as being involved in the suit or proceeding, or by reason of any settlement or abandonment of any suit or proceeding.

2. (1) In any case where a court fee is assessed and levied or sought to be levied by a registry of the High Court or of a subordinate court by virtue of these Rules the person required to pay the fee may, if he wishes to contend that such fee has been wrongly assessed or that no fee is leviable, pay the fee so assessed and within seven days thereafter file in that registry a protest in writing against the fee setting out the grounds upon which he relies in his contention; and upon receipt of the protest, the registry shall forthwith consider it and inform the person by whom the fee was paid in writing of the result of such consideration.

(2) If as a result of its consideration the registry is of the opinion that the fee paid was in excess of the lawful fee or that no fee was leviable it shall forthwith refund to the person by whom it was paid the amount of the excess or of the fee as the case may be.

(3) If the person by whom the fee was paid is not satisfied with the

PART X - FEES IN CRIMINAL APPEALS

R.E. 1948, Vol. V.

1. (1) Where a defendant in a criminal case tried by a subordinate court desires to appeal to the High Court against the order or sentence of the court and alleges that he is unable to pay the prescribed fees in connexion with the appeal by reason of his poverty, he shall so inform the court whose order or sentence is to be appealed against, and the court shall thereupon inquire into the means of the defendant.

(2) The court, where it is satisfied as to the poverty of the defendant, shall forward a report to that effect to the High Court, and shall make a recommendation in the report as to what proportion, if any, of the prescribed fees should be paid by the defendant together with a statement of the reasons for its recommendation.

(3) Where a defendant so desiring to appeal is in gaol, the officer in charge of the gaol shall make the inquiry, report and recommendation provided for in this rule, and the High Court may receive that report and recommendation in lieu of a report and recommendation by the court whose order or sentence is to be appealed against.

2. The High Court may -

- (a) accept and give effect to a report or recommendation made under rule 1; or
- (b) vary or refuse to accept the report or recommendation; or
- (c) direct a court or gaoler to make a further inquiry, report and recommendation.

3. Where the High Court in respect of an appeal to which this Part refers -

- (a) decides to reserve its decision as to the exercise of its powers under rule 2 in regard to a report or recommendation; or
- (b) has been notified that an inquiry under rule 1 is being conducted but has not yet received the report and recommendation relating to the inquiry, the court, prior to the exercise of those powers or to the receipt of the report and recommendation, as the case may be, may proceed to hear and determine the appeal.

PART XI - FEES OF COURT IN PROCEEDINGS FOR THE ACQUISITION OF LAND FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES

R.E. 1948, Vol. V.

The amount of court fees payable on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any law for the time being in force regulating the compulsory acquisition of land for public purposes shall be computed according to the ad valorem scale at present in force in civil cases upon the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

PART XII - COSTS UNDER THE MINING ACT

R.E. 1948, Vol. V
G.N. 1572/ 1955.
Cap. 306.

1. When an order has been made by the Commissioner of Mines under section 66 of the Mining Act for the payment of the costs in a dispute adjudicated upon under the provisions of section 61 of that Act, and an advocate has been employed, costs in addition to court fees may be allowed to the successful party according to the following scale-

(a) the remuneration of advocates for and in connexion with conducting cases on behalf of clients in respect of inquiries into disputes before the Commissioner (Mines and Geology) shall be such sum per diem not less than Sh. 20 and not exceeding Sh.100 as the Commissioner shall in each case allow, and in addition to that remuneration the Commissioner (Mines and Geology) may allow an advocate his reasonable travelling expenses in connexion with the case;

(b) the scale of allowances to witnesses shall apply to witnesses in proceedings under the Mining Act, and shall also apply to a party who is a material and necessary witness.

2. (1) The taxing officer shall not be absolutely bound by the above scale, but shall allow such just and reasonable charges and expenses as appear to have been properly incurred in procuring evidence.

(2) The loss of time of a witness shall be taken into consideration.

(3) A party who is a material and necessary witness may be allowed for his loss of time and expenses as if a stranger to the suit.

(4) When taxing costs, witnesses' expenses shall be supported by a statement signed by the advocate and filed with the bill of costs stating the place of abode and the condition, quality, occupation or rank in life of the witnesses or intended witnesses charged for, the distance they have

[Subsidiary] had to travel, the mode of travel, and if by rail the class in which the witnesses travelled for the purpose of attending the trial, also whether to the knowledge or belief of the deponents they attended as the witnesses in any other cause or came upon any other business, also that they were material and necessary witnesses for the party on the trial of the cause, and the notes of their evidence shall be produced on taxation.

(5) The allowances in respect of fees to any accountants, merchants, engineers, actuaries and scientific persons to whom a question is referred shall, save where the court or judge otherwise orders, be regulated by the taxing officer, subject to review by the court.

R.E. 1948, Vol. V.

PART XIII - COST OF IDENTIFICATION BY THE FINGER PRINT SYSTEM

1. In all court proceedings, criminal as well as civil, in which the evidence of a representative of the central finger print bureau is required by any party to the proceedings other than the Government for the purpose of identifying or distinguishing persons by the finger print system, the fees and charges set out in the Schedule shall be allowed as costs in the cause.

2. All fees and charges paid to or recovered by the central finger print bureau under this Part shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

“In the matter of the Maintenance Orders Enforcement Act.”

Notice of confirmation of order or otherwise. 4. When an order provisionally made outside Kenya has been confirmed with or without modification under section 6 of the Act by a subordinate court of the first class, or the court has decided not to confirm it, the court shall send notice thereof to the court from which it has issued and also to the President.

Confirmation of provisional order: direction for payments. 5. When an order has been registered under section 3 of the Act or a provisional order has been confirmed under section 6 of the Act, the court shall unless satisfied that it is undesirable to do so direct that all payments due thereunder shall be made to such person as it may specify for the purpose.

Payments. 6. (1) The person through whom the payments are directed to be made shall collect the moneys due under the order and may take proceedings in his own name for enforcing payment, and shall send the moneys when so collected to the Crown Agents for transmission to the person to whom they are due.

Variation or rescission of order. (2) The person through whom payments are directed to be made may retain out of moneys which come into his hands the amount of all disbursements necessarily made and a further sum not exceeding 1 per cent in respect of his charges.

Appeals. 7. (1) An application for the variation or rescission of a confirmed order shall be made with notice to the person through whom payments are directed to be made; and the applicant shall cause a copy of any order varying or rescinding a confirmed order to be served upon that person.

Cap. 21. (2) The fees and costs payable upon the lodging of an application under section 6 (6) of the Act shall be the fees and costs payable in respect of interlocutory applications in the High Court.

8. (1) An appeal against an order in confirmation lodged under section 6 (7) of the Act shall be presented to the High Court and shall be heard in the same manner as a civil appeal from a subordinate court under the Civil Procedure Act.

(2) Where a person through whom payments are directed to be made has been nominated, the appellant shall cause notice of the appeal and of any order made by the High Court in the course of the hearing of the appeal to be served upon that person.

[Subsidiary]

(3) The fee payable upon the appeal shall be Sh. 20.

10. (1) The register to be kept under rule 1, and the entries to be made in the register of a subordinate court of the first class under rule 3, shall be open to inspection on the payment of a fee of Sh. 2/50.

Inspection and copies of registers.

(2) Copies of any orders registered in accordance with these Rules shall be supplied upon payment of the usual copying fees.

11. Where an order is registered in the High Court under the Act, the Registrar of the High Court shall forward all papers lodged with him, other than those required for registration, to the Attorney-General, who may cause any necessary application to be made, and steps to be taken, to enforce the order.

Steps to be taken by Registrar.

12. The Attorney-General or the person acting for him under the rule 11 shall be deemed to be the legal representative of the party in whose favour the order was made or given unless and until an advocate is appointed in his place.

Legal representative of party.

PART XVI - SUBORDINATE COURTS PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

R.E. 1948, Vol. V.

A subordinate court holding a preliminary inquiry under Part VIII of the Criminal Procedure Code shall, after compliance with the provisions of section 233 of the Criminal Procedure Code as to the manner of taking depositions, subscribe on the record, at the end of the depositions taken before the court on each day during which the preliminary inquiry continues, a certificate in the form in the Schedule hereto, or a form to similar effect, with variations as the circumstances of the case require.

Cap. 75.

SCHEDULE TO PART XVI

I certify that the above depositions of C.D. and E.F. were taken and sworn before me in the presence of the accused person A.B. and that A.B. or his advocate had full opportunity of cross-examining the several witnesses, at on this day of 19

G.H.,
Magistrate.

THE HIGH COURT (ADMIRALTY) RULES

L.N. 8/1979.

Citation.

1. These Rules may be cited as the High Court (Admiralty) Rules.

Interpretation.

2. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires -

“admiralty proceedings” means proceedings in the High Court by virtue of section 4 of the Act;

“Admiralty Registry” means the Registry of the High Court at Nairobi or any District Registry through which for the time being the jurisdiction conferred by section 4 of the Act is exercised;

“court” means the High Court;

“judge” means a judge of the High Court;

“marshal” includes the Admiralty marshal appointed under rule 4 and deputy marshals appointed under rule 5;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the High Court or a deputy registrar for the time being in charge of an Admiralty Registry.

Conduct of admiralty proceedings generally.

3. The Supreme Court Rules, 1965, of England, as amended from time to time, shall apply to the exercise by the High Court of its admiralty jurisdiction under section 4 of the Act.

Admiralty marshal.

4. (1) There shall be an Admiralty marshal who shall have the powers and authority and carry out the duties and functions for the time being conferred upon or attaching to the office of Admiralty marshal of the High Court of Justice in England and any further or other powers, authority, duties and functions as may from time to time be conferred upon him by the Chief Justice.

(2) The Admiralty marshal shall be the Registrar or a deputy registrar of the High Court and shall be appointed by the Chief Justice on the advice of the Judicial Service Commission and shall hold office upon such terms and conditions as the Chief Justice may from time to time direct.

Appointment of deputy marshals at Mombasa and elsewhere.

5. (1) The resident judge at Mombasa and every other judge before whom admiralty proceedings are pending may from time to time appoint a magistrate not below the rank of magistrate of the first class to be a deputy marshal and the deputy marshal shall have in relation to those particular proceedings, subject to the direction of the judge, the power, authority, duties and functions of the Admiralty marshal.

[Subsidiary]

(2) The appointment of a deputy marshal under paragraph (1) may be terminated by notice in writing at any time by the Chief Justice or by the judge before whom for the time being the proceedings are pending, but termination shall be without prejudice to anything lawfully done by the deputy marshal prior to termination.

6. (1) In the exercise of the powers, authority, duties and functions conferred upon him by these Rules a marshal may appoint and employ such brokers or other persons as may appear to him to be expedient for the purpose of examining, appraising, valuing, offering for sale or selling any ship or any cargo in or on any ship:

Marshals may employ brokers, etc.

Provided that a broker so appointed may with the approval of the marshal by whom he is employed appoint a surveyor for the purpose of inspecting the ship or cargo concerned and submitting a confidential report thereon to the broker; and the proper charges of the surveyor shall be paid by the marshal.

(2) As soon as may be after his appointment a broker shall at the request of the marshal prepare, sign and submit to the marshal in confidence an appraisalment of the ship and, if required, the cargo therein; and the contents of that appraisalment shall not be disclosed to any person without the authority of the judge or, in the event of the ship being sold, until after the completion of the sale.

(3) The remuneration of the broker for his services shall be -

(a) fee for appraisalment: a sum of Sh. 500 in respect of the first £1,000 in value together with Sh. 50 for each additional sum of £400 in value but not to exceed Sh. 2,000 in all;

(b) commission on sale of ship: at the rate 10 per cent on the first £250 realized together with 5 per cent on the next £500 realized, $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent on the next £750 realized and 1 per cent on the balance over £1,500;

(c) commission on sale of cargo: at the rate of 10 per cent on the first £250 realized together with 5 per cent of the next £500 realized and 2 per cent on the balance over £750.

7. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), the forms to be used in admiralty proceedings shall be those in use for the time being in the Queen's Bench Division (Admiralty Court) in England, subject to any variations of whatever nature which may be expedient.

Forms.

[Subsidiary]

(2) The heading to the forms shall be -

“In the High Court of Kenya at (name of registry) Admiralty Jurisdiction” followed by the title of the suit as in England.

Fees.

8. (1) Subject to paragraphs (5) and (6), the fees set out in column 2 of the Schedule shall be paid in respect of the items set out opposite thereto in column 1.

(2) The fees prescribed by these Rules shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (3), be paid in cash and the document indicated in column 3 of the Schedule shall be marked by the officer of the court receiving the fee, showing the amount of the fee and the date of its receipt.

(3) The fee at item 10 in the Schedule shall be paid by transfer from money in court.

Sub. Leg.

(4) Where no other provision is made by these Rules the fees prescribed in Section 1 of the Schedule to Part IX of the High Court (Practice and Procedure) Rules shall, subject to paragraphs (5) and (6), apply mutatis mutandis to admiralty proceedings.

(5) Where it appears to the Chief Justice that the payment in admiralty proceedings of a fee would, owing to the exceptional circumstances of the particular case, involve undue hardship, the Chief Justice may reduce or remit the fee in the case.

(6) Where by a convention entered into by the Government with any foreign power it is provided that no fee shall be required to be paid in respect of any proceedings, no fee shall be charged or levied in any admiralty proceedings.
