TRIAL PANEL II (“Panel”), pursuant to Article 41(6), (10), and (12) of Law No. 05/L-053 on Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor’s Office, and Rules 56(2) and 57(2) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence Before the Kosovo Specialist Chambers, hereby renders this decision.

I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

1. The procedural background concerning the periodic review of the detention of Jakup Krasniqi (“Mr Krasniqi” or “Accused”) has been set out extensively in previous decisions concerning the same issue. Relevant events since the decision on periodic review of detention of Mr Krasniqi issued on 18 September 2025 (“Twenty-Second Detention Decision”) include those set out below.¹
2. On 27 October 2025, the Specialist Prosecutor’s Office (“SPO”) filed its submissions on the continued detention of Mr Krasniqi.²
3. The Defence for Mr Krasniqi (“Krasniqi Defence”) did not respond.

II. SUBMISSIONS

4. The SPO requests the continuation of Mr Krasniqi’s detention.³ The SPO argues that, since the Twenty-Second Detention Decision, there has been no change in circumstances that merits deviating from the previous determination of the Panel, and as such, Mr Krasniqi’s detention remains necessary and reasonable.⁴ To the contrary, the SPO submits that the continued progression of the trial, and related developments, add to the necessity and reasonableness of Mr Krasniqi's detention.⁵

III. APPLICABLE LAW

5. The law applicable to deciding the present matter is set out in Article 41(6), (10), and (12) and Rules 56 and 57 and has been laid out extensively in earlier decisions.⁶ The Panel will apply these standards to the present decision.

IV. DISCUSSION

6. The purpose of the bi-monthly review of detention pending trial pursuant to Article 41(10) is to determine whether reasons justifying detention still exist.⁷ A change in circumstances, while not determinative, shall be taken into consideration if raised before the relevant panel or proprio motu.⁸

A. ARTICLE 41 CRITERIA

1. Grounded Suspicion

7. Regarding the threshold for continued detention, Article 41(6)(a) requires a grounded suspicion that the detained person has committed a crime within the jurisdiction of the Specialist Chambers ("SC"). This is a condition sine qua non for the validity of the detained person's continued detention.⁹

⁵ SPO Submissions, para. 1.

⁹ See ECtHR, Merabishvili v. Georgia [GC], no. 72508/13, Judgment, 28 November 2017, para. 222.

8. The SPO argues that, absent any change in circumstances since the decision confirming the indictment and the decision confirming amendments to the indictment, there remains a grounded suspicion that Mr Krasniqi has committed a crime within the SC's jurisdiction.¹⁰

9. The Panel recalls that the Pre-Trial Judge determined that, pursuant to Article 39(2), there was a well-grounded suspicion that Mr Krasniqi is criminally liable for a number of crimes against humanity (persecution, imprisonment, other inhumane acts, torture, murder and enforced disappearance) and war crimes (arbitrary detention, cruel treatment, torture and murder) under Articles 13, 14(1)(c) and 16(1)(a).¹¹ Moreover, the Pre-Trial Judge found that a well-grounded suspicion has also been established with regard to new charges brought by the SPO against Mr Krasniqi.¹² These findings were made on the basis of a standard

¹⁰ SPO Submissions, para. 10 (with further references).

¹¹ F00026, Pre-Trial Judge, Decision on the Confirmation of the Indictment Against Hashim Thaçi, Kadri Veseli, Rexhep Selimi and Jakup Krasniqi, 26 October 2020, strictly confidential and ex parte, para. 521(a)(i)-(ii). A confidential redacted version (F00026/CONF/RED), a public redacted version (F00026/RED), and a confidential lesser redacted version (F00026/CONF/RED2) were issued, respectively, on 19 November 2020, 30 November 2020, and 21 September 2023. The SPO submitted the confirmed indictment in F00034, Specialist Prosecutor, Submission of Confirmed Indictment and Related Requests, 30 October 2020, confidential, with Annex 1, strictly confidential and ex parte, and Annexes 2-3, confidential; F00045/A03, Specialist Prosecutor, Further Redacted Indictment, 4 November 2020; F00134, Specialist Prosecutor, Lesser Redacted Version of Redacted Indictment, KSC-BC-2020-06/F00045/A02, 4 November 2020, 11 December 2020, confidential. A further corrected confirmed indictment was submitted on 3 September 2021, strictly confidential and ex parte (F00455/A01), with confidential redacted (F00455/CONF/RED/A01) and public redacted (F00455/RED/A01) versions. On 17 January 2022, the SPO submitted a confidential, corrected, and lesser redacted version of the confirmed indictment, F00647/A01.

exceeding the grounded suspicion threshold required for the purposes of Article 41(6)(a).¹³

10. Absent any new material circumstances affecting the above findings, the Panel finds that there continues to be a grounded suspicion that Mr Krasniqi has committed crimes within the subject-matter jurisdiction of the SC for the purposes of Article 41(6)(a) and (10).

2. Necessity of Detention

11. With respect to the grounds for continued detention, Article 41(6)(b) sets out three alternative bases (risks) on which detention may be found to be necessary: (i) risk of flight; (ii) risk of obstruction of the proceedings; or (iii) risk of further commission of crimes.¹⁴ Detention shall be maintained if there are articulable grounds to believe that one or more of these risks will materialise.¹⁵ “Articulable” in this context means specified in detail by reference to the relevant information or evidence.¹⁶ In determining whether any of the grounds provided in Article 41(6)(b) exist, the standard to be applied is less than certainty, but more than a mere possibility of a risk materialising.¹⁷

¹⁷ First Appeals Decision on Thaçi’s Detention, para. 22.

a) Risk of Flight

12. The SPO submits that Mr Krasniqi is aware of the scope of the case, including the charges against him and the evidence presented in relation to these charges.¹⁸ The SPO argues that this, in combination with the possible imposition of lengthy prison sentence becoming more concrete with the expeditious progression of trial and the conclusion of the presentation of the SPO's and Victims' Counsel's cases, together with Mr Krasniqi's means to travel, leads to a sufficiently real possibility that a risk of flight exists with respect to Mr Krasniqi.¹⁹

13. The Panel notes that the SPO is putting forward substantially the same arguments that the Panel has already considered and rejected in relation to this issue.²⁰ In this regard, the Panel recalls the finding of the Court of Appeals Panel that the Pre-Trial Judge should not be expected to entertain submissions that merely repeat arguments that have already been addressed in previous decisions.²¹ The Panel considers that this principle applies equally to the current stage of the proceedings. In light of the above, the Panel has not found any additional factor sufficiently compelling to affect the previous finding regarding the risk of flight.²²

14. The Panel therefore finds that, while the risk of flight can never be completely ruled out, Mr Krasniqi's continued detention may not be justified at this time on the ground of the risk of flight pursuant to Article 41(6)(b)(i).

b) Risk of Obstructing the Progress of SC Proceedings

15. With reference to previous findings by the Panel, the SPO submits that Mr Krasniqi continues to present a risk of obstructing the proceedings.²³ The SPO ascertain that the conclusion of the SPO's case does not obviate this risk, as the Accused now have knowledge of the full scope of the case against them and witnesses remain at risk of obstruction even after their testimony.²⁴ To support this, the SPO refers to the Panel's previous finding, confirmed by the Appeals Panel, that the risk of interference also includes: (i) any attempt to retaliate against witnesses who have testified in these proceedings; (ii) attempts to incentivise a witness to recant; and (iii) attempts to interfere with witnesses in parallel proceedings.²⁵

16. Furthermore, the SPO avers that there continues to be a climate of witness intimidation and interference, referring to findings made in various SC cases,²⁶ which, as held by the Court of Appeals Panel's, is a relevant contextual consideration.²⁷

17. The Panel calls attention to the standard utilised in assessing the risks under Article 41(6)(b), which does not require a "concrete example" of a situation in which Mr Krasniqi has personally intimidated or harassed a witness.²⁸ Therefore, as previously stated, the fact that the SPO has not produced any evidence which suggests that Mr Krasniqi in fact sought to interfere with any witness, does not mean that a risk under Article 41(6)(b) cannot exist.²⁹ Importantly, this does not contradict the Panel's previous finding that it is adjudicating this matter against a background of information that a general climate of witness interference persists in Kosovo regarding this case and others before the SC.³⁰

18. The Panel has already determined and reiterates that there is a risk of Mr Krasniqi obstructing SC proceedings based on, inter alia: (i) his position of influence which, combined with the willingness and ability to obtain access to confidential information inaccessible to the public, which allows for the reasonable conclusion that it is possible for Mr Krasniqi to secure access to confidential information related to matters to which he is currently connected; (ii) his public statements criticising the SC; and (iii) the content of a 24 April 2020 Facebook post targeting "collaborators".³¹ Furthermore, the Court of Appeals has confirmed that: (i) there are indications that Mr Krasniqi is, at least, predisposed to witness intimidation, for reasons earlier stated;³² and (ii) in assessing whether there is a risk that Mr Krasniqi will obstruct the proceedings, if released, it was not unreasonable to take into account, among other factors, Mr Krasniqi's public statements criticising the SC or the Facebook post of 24 April 2020.³³

19. As previously noted, the names and personal details of certain highly sensitive witnesses have been disclosed to the Krasniqi Defence,³⁴ and have therefore become known to a broader range of people, including to Mr Krasniqi. The Panel maintains its view that this, in turn, increases the risk of sensitive information pertaining to witnesses becoming known to members of the public.³⁵ In this context, regardless of the current stage of this case, the release of an accused with sensitive information in his possession would not be conducive to the effective protection of witnesses.³⁶ In this respect, the Panel recalls its previous finding, confirmed by the Court of Appeals Panel,³⁷ that the risk of interference also includes: (i) any attempt to retaliate against witnesses who have testified in these proceedings; (ii) attempts to incentivise a witness to recant; and (iii) attempts to interfere with witnesses in parallel proceedings.³⁸

20. Accordingly, the Panel concludes that, taking all factors together, the risk that Mr Krasniqi will obstruct the progress of SC proceedings if released continues to exist.

c) Risk of Committing Further Crimes

21. With reference to the Panel's findings in the Twenty-Second Detention Decision, the SPO submits that Mr Krasniqi continues to present a risk of committing further crimes.³⁹ According to the SPO, the Panel's conclusion that the continuing disclosure of sensitive information presented an unacceptable risk of the commission of further crimes applies even more forcefully given the conclusion of the SPO's case.⁴⁰ Furthermore, the SPO argues that the extremely serious nature of the charges against Mr Krasniqi needs to be taken into account.⁴¹

22. The Panel recalls its finding in the Twenty-Second Detention Decision that the risk of Mr Krasniqi committing further crimes continues to exist.⁴² The Panel finds that the same considerations and factors that were taken into account in relation to the risk of obstruction are relevant to the analysis of the risk of Mr Krasniqi committing further crimes.⁴³ In light of those, the Panel considers that no new circumstances have arisen since the last detention review that would justify a different finding in respect of this matter.

23. The Panel considers that, taking all factors together, there continues to be a risk that Mr Krasniqi will commit further crimes as set out in Article 41(6)(b)(iii).

3. Conclusion

24. The Panel concludes that, at this time, there continues to be insufficient information before it justifying a finding that Mr Krasniqi may abscond from justice. However, the Panel is satisfied, based on the relevant standard, that there continues to be a risk that Mr Krasniqi will obstruct the progress of SC proceedings and a risk that he will commit further crimes against those perceived as being opposed to the Kosovo Liberation Army, including witnesses who provided evidence in the case and/or may be called in parallel proceedings.

25. The Panel will assess below whether these risks can be adequately addressed by any conditions for Mr Krasniqi's release.

⁴² Twenty-Second Detention Decision, para. 35.

⁴³ See above, paras 18-20. See also Twenty-Second Detention Decision, para. 34.

B. MEASURES ALTERNATIVE TO DETENTION

26. The SPO submits, with reference to the Panel's previous findings, that: (i) the risks pursuant to Article 41(6)(b) can only be effectively managed at the SC detention facilities ("SC Detention Facilities"); (ii) nothing has occurred since the Twenty-Second Detention Decision warranting a different assessment on conditions, either generally or for a discrete period of time; and (iii) rather, the continuation of trial and attendant further disclosure make the underlying risks higher than ever.⁴⁴

27. When deciding on whether a person should be released or detained, the Panel must consider alternative measures to prevent the risks in Article 41(6)(b).⁴⁵ Article 41(12) sets out a number of options to be considered in order to ensure the accused's presence at trial, to prevent reoffending or to ensure successful conduct of proceedings. In this respect, the Panel recalls that detention should only be continued if there are no alternative, more lenient measures reasonably available that could sufficiently mitigate the risks set out in Article 41(6)(b).⁴⁶ The Panel must therefore consider all reasonable alternative measures that could be imposed and not only those raised by the Krasniqi Defence or the SPO.⁴⁷

28. Regarding the risk of obstructing the progress of SC proceedings and commission of further crimes, the Panel maintains its view that none of the previously proposed conditions, nor any additional measures foreseen in Article 41(12), ordered proprio motu, could at this stage in the proceedings sufficiently, and to a degree comparable to that of detention at the SC Detention Facilities, mitigate the existing risks with respect to Mr Krasniqi.⁴⁸ Furthermore, the Panel reiterates that the measures in place at the SC Detention Facilities, and the staff of the Registrar, viewed as a whole, provide robust assurances against the risks associated with unmonitored visits and communications with family members and pre-approved visitors with a view to minimising the risks of obstruction and commission of further crimes.⁴⁹ Moreover, they offer a controlled environment where a potential breach of confidentiality could be more easily identified and/or prevented.⁵⁰

29. The Panel further maintains its view that it is only through the communication monitoring framework applicable at the SC Detention Facilities that Mr Krasniqi's communications can be restricted in a manner that would sufficiently mitigate the risks of obstruction and commission of further crimes.⁵¹

30. In light of the foregoing, the Panel finds that the risks of obstructing the proceedings and committing further offences can only be effectively managed at this stage of the proceedings if Mr Krasniqi remains at the SC Detention Facilities. In these circumstances, the Panel finds that there are no alternatives to Mr Krasniqi's continued detention capable of adequately averting the risks in Article 41(6)(b)(ii) and (iii).

C. REASONABLENESS OF DETENTION

31. The SPO argues that, taking all factors into consideration, Mr Krasniqi's detention remains proportional.⁵² To that end, the SPO refers to the Panel's previous findings that: (i) Mr Krasniqi is charged with ten counts of serious international crimes in which he is alleged to play a significant role; (ii) if convicted, he could face a lengthy sentence; (iii) the continuing risks under Article 41(6)(b)(ii)-(iii) cannot be sufficiently mitigated by the application of reasonable alternative measures; (iv) the case against Mr Krasniqi is complex; (v) a climate of witness intimidation exists as outlined above; and (vi) the trial is ongoing.⁵³

32. The Panel is cognisant that the duration of time in detention is a factor that needs to be considered, along with the degree of the risks described in Article 41(6)(b), in order to determine whether, all factors being considered, the continued detention "stops being reasonable" and the individual needs to be released.⁵⁴

33. In the Panel's estimation, special features in this case include the following: (i) Mr Krasniqi is charged with ten counts of serious international crimes in which he is alleged to play a significant role;⁵⁵ (ii) if convicted, Mr Krasniqi could face a lengthy sentence; (iii) the continuing risks under Article 41(6)(b)(ii) and (iii) cannot be sufficiently mitigated by the application of reasonable alternative measures;⁵⁶ (iv) the case against Mr Krasniqi is complex;⁵⁷ (v) the climate of witness intimidation outlined above; and (vi) the fact that the trial is ongoing.

34. In light of the above, the Panel finds that Mr Krasniqi's detention for a further two months is necessary and reasonable in the specific circumstances of the case.

35. The Panel acknowledges that Mr Krasniqi has already been in detention for a significant period of time, and that the trial in this case is lengthy. As the Panel previously indicated,⁵⁸ this will require the Panel as well as all Parties to be particularly mindful of the need to ensure that the trial proceeds as expeditiously as possible. The Panel will continue to monitor at every stage in these proceedings whether continued detention is necessary and reasonable.

V. DISPOSITION

36. For the above-mentioned reasons, the Panel hereby:

- a) ORDERS Mr Krasniqi's continued detention; and
- b) ORDERS the SPO to file submissions on the next review of Mr Krasniqi's detention by no later Friday, 19 December 2025 (at 16:00 hours), with subsequent written submissions following the timelines set out in Rule 76.
