FULL STATEMENT OF ATROCITY OR CRIME.

WITHESS BEING DULY STOTE STATES: -

At YAMANI Camp on the JAP island of SHIKOKU, about March 1945, Gar Basil JOHES and Gar Allan CRR, both of 2/15 Fd Regt were accused of stealing sugar.

They were taken away under the orders of the Jap WO known as "HAPPY JACK" for questioning. They denied having stolen the sugar and told the truth, that they had obtained it from their Jap guards in exchange for eigarettes from their Red Cross parcel.

"MAPPY JACK" refuésed to believe this, and in an effort to extract a confession of theft from them, HE SPHED THEIR HANDS TO TABLES USING A ORDINALY TYPE OF OFFICE SPIKE FILE. THE SPIKE TAS DRIVEN RICHE THROUGH THE HAND SEVERAL THES MEAR THE KNUCKLE JOINTS. HE THEN PRISED AND LIFTED FORCIBLY THE FINGER MAILS OF THE MET USING A PAPER HALF AS A LAVER.

I saw both JOHES and ORR the following day, and their hands were in a shocking condition. They both told me that had occurred. I also know that on the day of the torture, "HEPPY JACK" gave Lt. "ITHYCOMBE an unmerciful beating .... Both JOHES AND ORR had very bad hands for a long time, as a result of their tortures.

The Jap WO "HAPPY JACK" was responsible for frequently severely beating up the PW, his favorite weapon being a heavy wooden sword. He seemed to loath all whites, and indulged his cruel tendencies on every possible occasion.

The food conditions in this camp at SHIKOKU were very bad. We had to live on a very small quantity of rice and barley, and we used our fer conts a day work pay to buy any food we could. We were so starved that we bought and are the entrails of dogs, and when we could get it, horseflosh.

Our work was in the copper mine, the shifts being each 12 hours a day with one day off each month. (On this day they gave us less food still, on the grounds that we needed less because of no work). The mines had previously been closed because of the dangerous condition of working, but they opened the dangerous shafts for us to work. There were some deaths through accident.

Confirmation of all this evidence can be obtained from the officers named herein.
