THAT the indictment charges:

DRAGAN GAGOVIĆ was the Chief of Police in Foča after the take-over of the municipality by the Bosnian Serb Army. He was the person in charge of the detention and the release of female Muslim detainees in Foča. He is accused of participating in the persecution and the notorious sexual assault of a group of at least 72 Muslim women, children and elderly persons, detained in the Partizan Sports Hall in Foča from about 13 July 1992 until 13 August 1992. On or around 17 July 1992, DRAGAN GAGOVIĆ personally raped one of the women.

GOJKO JANKOVIĆ was a sub-commander of the military police and one of the main paramilitary leaders in Foča. He is accused of participating in the continuous sexual assault of at least five women and young girls who, from about 3 July 1992 until 13 August 1992, had been confined at three different detention facilities in Foča. He is also accused of having raped four women and girls on or about 30 October 1992.

JANKO JANJIĆ was a sub-commander of the military police and a paramilitary leader in Foča. He is accused of participating in the continuous sexual assault of at least seven women and girls who, from about 3 July 1992 until 13 August 1992, had been confined at three different detention facilities in Foča. He is also accused of having raped four women and girls on or about 30 October 1992.

RADOMIR KOVAČ was a sub-commander of the military police and a paramilitary leader in Foča. He was in charge of an apartment in the Brena block in Foča where four Muslim women were detained from 31 October 1992 until February 1993. He participated in the constant sexual assault of these detainees.

ZORAN VUKOVIĆ was a sub-commander of the military police and a paramilitary leader in Foča. He is accused of participating in the continuous sexual assault of at least five women and girls who, from about 13 July 1992 until 13 August 1992, had been confined at two different detention facilities in Foča.

DRAGAN ZELENOVIĆ was a sub-commander of the military police and a paramilitary leader in Foča. He is accused of participating in the continuous sexual assault of at least five women and girls who, from about 3 July 1992 until 13 August 1992, had been confined at three different detention facilities in Foča. He is also accused of having raped four women and girls on or about 30 October 1992.

DRAGOLJUB KUNARAC was the commander of a special volunteer unit of non-local irregular Serb soldiers mainly from Montenegro. He is accused of participating in the continuous sexual assault of at least five women and girls who, from about 3 July 1992 until 13 August 1992, had been confined at the Partizan Sports Hall and in his headquarters in Foča.

RADOVAN STANKOVIĆ was a member of a Bosnian Serb elite unit in Foča. He was in charge of Karaman's house in Miljevina, where nine Muslim women were detained from at least 2 August 1992 until 30 October 1992. He participated in the constant sexual assault of these detainees.

IT IS HEREBY ANNOUNCED that if Dragan GAGOVIĆ, Gojko JANKOVIĆ, Janko JANJIĆ, Radomir KOVAČ, Zoran VUKOVIĆ, Dragan ZELENOVIĆ, Dragoljub KUNARAC and Radovan STANKOVIĆ do not immediately present themselves to answer these charges, the Prosecutor intends to ask a Judge of the Trial Chamber to proceed under Rule 61 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Dragan GAGOVIĆ, Gojko JANKOVIĆ, Janko JANJIĆ, Radomir KOVAČ, Zoran VUKOVIĆ, Dragan ZELENOVIĆ, Dragoljub KUNARAC and Radovan STANKOVIĆ, is asked to bring this advertisement to their attention.
