

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

THE REQUEST

1. On 8 October 2008, the General Assembly, at its sixty-third session, adopted resolution 63/3 by a recorded vote of 77 in favour to 6 against with 74 abstentions. The full text of the resolution containing the request reads:

The General Assembly,

Mindful of the purposes and principles of the United Nations,

Bearing in mind its functions and powers under the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling that on 17 February 2008 the Provisional Institutions of Self-Government of Kosovo declared independence from Serbia,

Aware that this act has been received with varied reactions by the Members of the United Nations as to its compatibility with the existing international legal order,

Decides, in accordance with Article 96 of the Charter of the United Nations to request the International Court of Justice, pursuant to Article 65 of the Statute of the Court to render an advisory opinion on the following question:

“Is the unilateral declaration of independence by the Provisional Institutions of Self-Government of Kosovo in accordance with international law?”

FRAMEWORK OF THE DOSSIER

2. The Dossier, prepared pursuant to the Order of the President of the International Court of Justice of 17 October 2008 and paragraph 2 of Article 65 of the Statute of the Court, contains the documents and other material of the United Nations as well as international instruments likely to throw light upon the question on which the advisory opinion of the Court is requested. The documents are numbered consecutively and identified by title and, where appropriate, by official United Nations symbol.

3. The Dossier is divided into three Parts. Part I contains background material relating to the request by the General Assembly for an advisory opinion. Part II contains material relating to the establishment of the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo (UNMIK), the administration of Kosovo and the future status process. Part III contains material on general questions of international law of relevance to the question before the Court.

4. The approach taken to the preparation of the Dossier is “comprehensive but relevant” The Dossier is meant to give an overview of all aspects of UNMIK’s administration of Kosovo through a selection of UN and other documents. With the exception of Section C of Part II, which includes all Secretary-General’s reports on UNMIK, all other Sections include a selective choice of documents prefaced by an explanatory paragraph. The “beginning date” of Part II of the Dossier is set at March 1998, which is the starting point for the UN’s engagement in Kosovo. The end date varies. For events in Kosovo, with the exception of one Regulation, the “end date” is February 2008 – the date of the unilateral declaration of independence. For other UN documents, it ends in November 2008 with the latest Secretary-General’s report.

PART III: MATERIAL RELATING TO GENERAL QUESTIONS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW PERTINENT TO THE REQUEST

216. Part III contains material relating to general questions of international law, including the right of peoples to self-determination, secession, and the principle of States' sovereignty and territorial integrity, in general, and in the context of the former Yugoslavia, in particular. This Part includes international law instruments, both universal and regional, General Assembly resolutions and relevant "General Comments/Recommendations" of the Human Rights treaty bodies (the Human Rights Committee and the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD)), whose interpretation of the Conventions is considered authoritative. Relevant judicial decisions of international or national courts are not included in the Dossier as they are within the judicial knowledge of the Court.

217. This Part does not include General Assembly resolutions adopted with regard to specific non-self governing territories throughout the era of decolonization. Excluded also are all General Assembly resolutions adopted annually under the agenda item "Importance of the universal realization of the right of peoples to self-determination and of the speedy granting of independence to colonial countries and peoples for the effective guarantee and observance of human rights" (the first of which was resolution 2649 (XXV) of 30 November 1970, and the last was resolution 49/151 of 23 December 1994), as well as resolutions adopted, as of the 36th Session of the General Assembly, under the agenda item "Universal realization of the right of peoples to self-determination (the first of which was resolution 36/10 of 28 October 1981, and the latest was resolution 63/429 of 18 December 2008). The General Assembly adopted resolutions under both agenda items at its 36th to 49th Sessions. The resolutions under both agenda items are focused exclusively on the situation of colonial, foreign and alien domination, aggression and occupation, the rights of indigenous people and the use of mercenaries.

218. Secretary-General's reports submitted pursuant to these resolutions under both agenda items are also not included in the Dossier. For the most part, they include (i) information received from Governments in response to the Secretary-General's request; and (ii) summaries of the relevant sessions of the Commission on Human Rights (Human Rights Council) under the agenda item on the right of peoples to self-determination and discussions on specific issues, i.e., the "situation in occupied Palestine", "question of Western Sahara", or the "use of mercenaries". The first Secretary-General's report on the right of peoples to self-determination was submitted to the 27th Session of the General Assembly (A/8775) and the latest report was submitted to the 63rd Session of the General Assembly (A/63/254 of 8 August 2008).
