(The Commission convened, pursuant to adjournment, at 0835 hours, at Court No. 1, High Commissioner's Residence, Manila, P. I., 28 October 1946.)

COLONEL PARMELEE: The Commission is in session.

CAPTAIN ROWE: If the Commission please, let the record indicate all members of the Commission are present. The accused is present, with his two personal defense' counsel and interpreter of his own choice. The official American defense counsel is absent, as I understand, due to illness. The prosecution is present. The prosecution is ready to proceed.

The status of the case is that both sides have rested, and both sides are ready for summation and final argument.

COLONEL PARMELEE: The Commission has information that the defense counsel is ill, and it is believed that he will be ready for a session tomorrow.

The verification of Mr. Feder's status will be obtained this afternoon, and the interested parties will be notified if a session can be held tomorrow.

In the meantime, the Commission will adjourn, and will reconvene at the call of the President.

(The Commission recessed at 0840 hours, to reconvene at the call of the President.)
